GERMANSTRY TO CUT LINE OF RETREAT

Russians Struggling to Abandon Warsaw Without Losing Armies.

LONDON, July 30, 10:30 p. m.—The Russians now are facing the problem of evacuating Warsaw and the surrounding country without losing their armies, while the Austro-German forces are making a supreme effort to get across their line of retreat.

The Teutons are said to have met with partial success in this attempt, a Berlin official report this evening stating that Field Marshal von Mackensen, resuming the offensive, had reached the Chelm-Lublin railway, about midway between those two cities, and that southeast of this, as far as the Bug river, the Russian front had been "shaken."

The success of General von Mackensen in getting across this railway, after having been virtually stopped by the Russian counter attack, denies at least one line of retreat to the Russians, who might still be between him and Warsaw, and also places the Germans in a position to move against the Bug river front, should this be decided upon.

ADVENTISTS TO MEET AGAIN

Such success has attended the meetings of the Seventh Day Adventists here that it has been decided to continue the meetings, and a two months series will be started Sunday evening in the tent erected yesterday between Seventh and Eighth on Macdonald.

Evangelist A. S. Marchus will preach Sunday evening on "The Mystical Number 666. The Number of a Man, Who Is He?" A special feature of the musical program of the evening is a harp solo by the most noted harpist on the coast, Salvador Denefeu, who recently played at the Oakland Peace Palace.

BIG CLASS TO BE INITIATED

Five applications were received by the Woodmen of the World at their meeting in W. O. W. Hall last night. The local lodge was well represented at the grand military ball given by the San Francisco lodge last Wednesday night. They returned to Richmond with the high praises of the San Francisco entertaining committee. Next Friday night will be a class initiation of nine new members, and a "watermelon feed." H. B. Hollenbaugh (chairman), A. C. Lodi and L. Migel compose the committee that have charge of the entertainment and banquet.

M. E. Dilly, the popular merchant of 301 Macdonald avenue, has just returned from an enjoyable two weeks' vacation at Calistoga.

ROY WELLS BADLY INJURED BY STREET CAR

S. R. Tucker Dies Following Accident

LEG CRUSHED BY TRAIN ON MOLE

Formerly Local Street Car Motorman, Falls Beneath Wheels of Key Route Train.

Samuel R. Tucker, until recently employed in Richmond by the S. P.-Oakland Terminal Railways company, died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Fabiola hospital, Oakland, shortly after his right leg, crushed by the wheels of a Key Route car at the Oakland mole, had been amputated.

The train on which Tucker reached the mole was a minute late. He leaped from it while it was still moving to catch the train on which he had to start work for the day. It had already started and Tucker, in swinging onto the step, slipped. His foot went under the wheels and he was dragged several yards.

At the hospital the leg was amputated just below the knee. He was greatly weakened by the loss of blood and failed to rally from the shock of the operation.

Tucker worked out of the local car barns for more than three years. He is survived by a wife and child, who live in Oakland. He is a member of the Carmen's Union and the Richmond Lodge of Knights of Pythias.

The funeral date has not been announced, pending word from Tucker's sister, who lives in Indiana. The funeral will be under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias.

BIG WEST SIDE CROWD LISTENS TO THE CONCERT

The concert given by the Richmond Concert Band last night at the new band stand on the west side was attended by a large and highly pleased crowd.

A cornet solo by Joseph Maroney aroused the greatest applause. The cornet was echoed by a quartette, a horn, trombone and two cornets, from a considerable distance from the stand, and was perfectly done.

Those of the quartette were W. A. Darrel, W. Richards, H. Young and H. Bushnell.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All members of I. O. O. F. are requested to meet at 1 o'clock sharp Monday, August 2, in W. O. W Hall, to attend the funeral of our deceased brother, Leslie Holsclow. Funeral to take place at 2 o'clock from Smallwood Undertaking Parlors.

172 MILE PIPE LINE NEARS COMPLETION

With two big corporations in the field with pipe lines costing millions of dollars, a third concern—the Shell Company of California—has just about completed its 172 miles of pipe, extending from Coalinga to Martines.

This line follows the edge of the foothills, passing through the extreme southwest end of San Joaquin county. The company has installed a station at the mouth of Ingram canyon, Stanislaus county, south and southwest of Vernalis. Big tanks, pumping house and several cottages have been constructed there. The company hopes to have oil flowing through pipes from the fields to the bay.

The process of transporting oil through pipes from the fields to the bay is a big undertaking. In the first place, it costs thousands of dollars for the material used and thousands more for the labor necessary to install the pipes, build the stations, etc. The Shell company of California incorporated for $7,000,000.

A pumping station is necessary every 10 miles or so. There are about 23 stations along the new Shell line. The oil is pumped from one station to the other. It cools as it flows through the pipe and barely moves when it reaches the next station. Here it is heated and started on its way again. The Shell company has 400 acres at Martines, where it has a refinery with a capacity of 20,000 barrels a day.

This company has a station near Byron, designated as Menanos. The holdings at this point alone aggregate 13 acres. Two great tanks holding 37,500 gallons each have been erected there. There are several large pump buildings, three cottages and a boarding house. The very latest machinery has been installed.

The Standard Oil Company has three main lines, two of them consisting of eight-inch pipe and one of a twelve-inch pipe. There are 280 miles of pipe costing, together with the stations, etc., into the millions. In addition to the regular oil mains there are numerous feeders running from Coalinga, Sunset, Midway and other oil fields.

The Associated Oil company lines run over two routes. One line extends from the oil fields down the valley into Port Costa, and the other runs through the Salinas valley to Monterey. This company also has expended vast sums of money in establishing its system.

Earl Ritchie Wins Decision

Earl Ritchie won a close decision from Henry Hendricks at Dreamland Rink last night. The decision was very unpopular and was hooted. Hendricks outclassed Ritchie, who seemed to be unable to cover himself.

In the first Hendricks hit Ritchie low once, but Foley would not allow the foul. Frank Smith, Ed Brown, Ed McPeake, Jack McNeil and Raymond Richmond attended the bouts.

ASSASSIN OF BART KEOHANE NOT KNOWN; JURY

After listening to testimony of numerous witnesses Thursday and Friday nights, a coroner's jury last night at midnight returned a verdict that Bart Keohane, Stege saloon man, had come to his death by a gun shot wound inflicted by parties unknown.

The inquest was held behind closed doors, but the rumored sensation failed to materialize.

The three bandits who held up and shot Keohane, according to testimony given by Mrs. Bessie Anderson and her daughter, Miss Helen O'Neill, both of Stege, came in a machine with no lights and escaped in it.

Charles Pagiere, Frank Dumon, and Mrs. Ida Pagiere, all of Livermore, came to call on a friend in Stege the night of the tragedy.

The friend was not home and they decided to go to the Keohane bar, expecting to find him there.

Pagiere saw a man walking up and down in front of the saloon. When the man saw Pagiere he ran into the saloon and shouted, "Shoot him! Shoot him!" The cry was immediately followed by three shots in rapid succession. Then three men ran from the place.

Pagiere ran in, saw Keohane lying in front of the bar, and dashed into the street again after the three bandits. He cried to Dumont to catch them.

Dumont joined the chase. One of the men warned him to stop or get shot. Dumont told him to go to the devil and the fugitive fired three times, missing his mark.

Dumont then closed with him and succeeded in wresting the revolver away, when he heard Mrs. Pagiere scream. Thinking she was hurt, he dropped his man and ran back. Mrs. Pagiere explained that she was screaming because she thought her husband had been shot. That was the end of the chase. No trace as yet has been found of the men.

Other witnesses were Miss Mary Kinch, Officer Dan Cox, Officer Oliver Wylie, Officer S. F. Wright, E. M. Ennis, Dr. U. S. Abbott, Patrick Keohane, Jack McLean, C. J. Pekain, A. Lindell, Inspector Betts, Albert Markstein and John Hines.

The jurors were J. H. Eggerth, F. H. Lottman, A. Howard, J. F. Arno, D. N. Long, Thomas Thayer and George P. Malloy.

U. S. MARINES ARE KILLED IN HAITI

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Two American bluejackets were killed last night in an attack by natives on Port au Prince, Haiti, held by Rear Admiral Caperton with 400 men from the cruiser Washington. The attacking party was beaten off without having approached closer than the outskirts of the city, and order was maintained in the city itself. No sailors were wounded, and the loss of the attacking force was not reported.

MISS STEFFENS, WILLIE RITCHIE AND PARTY LEAVE

Miss Madeline Steffens, well known on the west side, and a sister of Willie Ritchie, ex-lightweight champion, accompanied her brother, her sister and husband, and her younger brothers, Paul and Teddy, left San Francisco yesterday for a vacation at Lake Tahoe. Ritchie plans to enter the ring again after his rustication.

MRS. FRED YARBROUGH returned from Chicago after an absence of two months. Her two sons, Lloyd and Jean, have also returned to Richmond from a trip to Cloverdale, Healdsburg and Guerneville.

Mrs. Yarbrough's niece, Miss Laughlin, returned from the East with her. The young lady will attend high school here.

HURLED FROM TRUCK IN CRASH

Roy A. Wells, prominent member of the local Teamsters' Union, miraculously escaped death yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock when he was thrown from the seat of his auto truck through a right-of-way fence an instant later the steel train loop near Hayward. He escaped from the accident with several broken ribs, and possible internal injuries, which could not be ascertained by Dr. W. R. Scroggs, who attended Wells after he was brought to Richmond, already bandaged.

Wells was driving the heavy gravel auto truck of the Richmond Truck company, which is doing construction work near Hayward. He approached the train track as the fast electric car was nearing the crossing. The car sounded no signal, Wells states, and slowed down and gave every evidence of stopping. Wells started up his truck and almost simultaneously the train gained speed. Seeing that he could not make a safe crossing, Wells swung the heavy truck, parallel with the direction of the train, but the truck was yet on the track, and an instant later the steel train crashed into the rear of the truck.

Wells was hurled over 25 feet, his body crashing through the right-of-way fence and falling into a ditch. A companion on the truck escaped uninjured. Wells was unconscious for over an hour, during which time his body was dressed by an ambulance surgeon. The skin was not broken in any place, which fact was commented on as being remarkable by Dr. Scroggs last night.

Wells lives at 223 Fifth street, is married and has one child.

The truck is a complete wreck.

Officials of the latter organization last night announced that no union teamsters will work Monday after 12 o'clock. They will meet at the Labor Temple on Fourth street at 1 o'clock, and will be carried from the chapel to Sunset View cemetery in automobiles.

Mrs. F. E. Adams, owner of the truck which Holsclaw was driving when he met his death, is prostrate with grief and is being attended by a physician. Since her husband's death, Holsclaw had done much to help her manage the business.

LABOR PREDICTED EASTLAND DISASTER.

Immediately after the Eastland disaster in Chicago, officials of the Chicago Federation of Labor sent telegrams to President Wilson and Edwin F. Sweet, assistant secretary of commerce, reminding them that organized labor of Chicago had protested a year ago against lax steamship inspection and overcrowding on lake excursion boats.

The telegram to the President:

"Steamboat Eastland sunk at the dock. Reported 1000 lives lost. We most respectfully refer yon to the protest letter of the Chicago Federation, addressed to Edwin F. Sweet, assistant secretary Department of Commerce, dated June 22, 1914. E. N. Nockels, secretary."

The telegram to Sweet was substantially the same.

The warning letter:

CHICAGO, Ill., June 22, 1914.

Dr. Edwin F. Sweet, Assistant Secretary, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: Probably you recall some time ago we wrote you citing instances of violation of law permitted on steamboats by the United States inspection service and, replying thereto, you stated the matter would be investigated. You also requested information in reference to the statement in our first communication where United States inspectors were taking orders from the ship owners, to all of which reply was made.

We believe the condition of the excursion passenger steamers are altogether too unsafe to be permitted to continue without a most vigorous protest from this federation as a matter of record, in the event of any accident in the future, that we, at least, had registered a protest. The crowded conditions allowed will result in the loss of thousands of lives, even though tied to the dock.

We notice in press dispatches that former President Mellen of the New Haven railroad referred to the coast steamers as "tinder boxes." The same applies here because, as our committee has said, it seems that United States inspectors are more concerned with the vessel owners' interest and support than the protest of the public.

Most respectfully,

CHICAGO FEDERATION OF LABOR.

E. N. Nockels, Secretary.

Note the direct statement that "The crowded conditions allowed will result in the loss of thousands of lives, even though tied to the dock."

In an editorial the Vallejo Tribune, the labor daily of the Navy Yard town, says:

"Profits and dividends'—the alleged 'rights of property' against human life—that is the whole story of the Eastland horror in Chicago. There is notable consistency in the activities of the steel trust, which dominates the steamship business of the Great Lakes. It is making shrapnel to kill people in Europe, and, as if this were not enough to satisfy its bloodthirst, it debauchs the inspection service in order that it may operate rotten ships on American waters and kill helpless women and children. Some of our citizens go into a fine frenzy. Germans do this thing, but we allow it to be repeated in our own country. An Iroquois holocaust is followed by a Slocum disaster and a Slocum disaster by an Eastland horror, all because profits must be considered before safety for life. How long will it be before the next?"

THE TRUTH OF THE MATTER.

The fight against the Seamen's Bill continues. Every day we read of the coming demise of the American merchant marine because of it. Cartoons are printed showing the Jap and the Chinaman dragging the merchant marine from the hands of Uncle Sam. Every day we hear the wail of the Pacific Mail and the Dollar line that are "being forced out of business by the Seamen's Bill."

The truth of the matter is that the Pacile Mail is being separated from the Southern Pacific in order to comply with the terms of the Panama Canal act, which forbids a railroad company from operating a steamship line through the canal. The Dollar company is being reorganized to go into the coastwise trade, and is converting its ships into oil burners in order to do away with some Chinese firemen for each vessel, thereby effecting a saving.

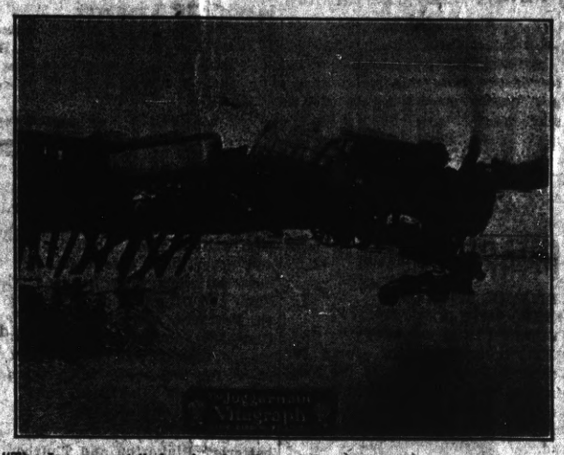
"THE JUGGERNAUT" AT RICHMOND



"The Juggernaut," showing for the last time today at the Richmond theater, is the most vivid railroad play of today. In many features it is without an equal in the entire moving picture world and its appearance at the theater last nigh was greeted with hundreds of remarks upon its power and the skill with which it had been produced.

The startling moment of the play is when the train, loaded with human beings, rushes on to its destruction, followed by the railroad president and the district attorney in automobiles, trying vainly to reach the goal before the train arrives. Their efforts are too late, the train crashes through the bridge, the gorge is filled with the shattered wreck of locomotives and coaches.

Sunday's vaudeville program offers a bill full of many new and original features. Three of these have been secured direct rfom successful runs on the Pantages circuit. The bill will include Alma Grace, "The Girl of the Golden West"; Soule Bros., the athletes supreme; Walter Reynolds and company, "The Mysterious Visitor," and Le Barge, the versatile artist. The last two acts are among the best which have ever been brought to this city. The picture for Sunday will be the three-reel Vitagraph Broadway Star feature, "In the Days of Famine," a tale of the Canadian Sorthwest.

Tremendous Production of 'Clansman' at Macdonough

SCENE FROM "THE CLANSMAN," MACDONOUGH THEATER, COMMENCING MONDAY, AUGUST 2.

"The Birth of a Nation," or as it is more generally known, "The Clansman," the photo-drama by D. W. Griffith, the master of the film play stage, which opens at the Macdonough theater for a brief return engagement commencing next Monday, August 2, carries with its marvelously absorbing romance the first correct understanding history of this country ever shown by an unbiased mind in directing an unprejudiced hand.

While it is based on Thomas Dixon's story, "The Clansman," this trilogy portrays the inception, echoes the travail of the birth and shows the development of our nation, the country that before the Civil War was the United States and ever since and ever will be, "The United States."

In "The Birth of a Nation," the audience sees Lincoln and his Cabinet issuing the call for volunteers—the scene, the men, the placing of the signature exactly to the smallest detail of clothing and expression as it actually occurred and the war begins.

With the thousands of actors, the exhaustless resources at his command, Director Griffith built cities to be burned, duplicated battles, photographed Legislatures in session. Two exhibitions will be held daily—the matinee at 2:15 and the evening exhibition at 8:10.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

RICHMOND (Cal.), February 19, 1915.—Richmond's growth during the last year has again beaten all records. It is far greater in proportion than any other of the coast cities.

Never Again Such an Opportunity As Now

During the so-called "Dull Period" of the past two years, while Stocks, Bonds and nearly all classes of securities have depreciated in value, the lots we have sold in our Nicholl-Macdonald Ave Business Center Tract on which you can make as much money have constantly increased in value.

The property we have sold in Richmond during the past five years has increased more in value than lots in all other tracts combined.

Nowhere else in California can you buy lots at the price and terms we are selling them for in our Business Center Tract on which you can make as much money

you Can Always Buy a Resident Lot

FIGHT CARD IS ANNOUNCED FOR NEXT THURSDAY

A double main event and a double special event is on at Kerby Floyd's arena for next Thursday evening. The boys are all too well known to need introduction, and will trot out as follows:

MAIN EVENTS.

Jack Davis, the fighting conductor, vs. Billie Alveras of Oakland—again.

SPECIAL EVENTS.

Jimmy Duffey vs. Jimmy Keyrose, both of Oakland, and both good.

Al Mejia, Richmond's bantam, vs. Joe Gomes of Oakland.

PRELIMINARY.

Mervyn Richmond, pride of the S. O. carpenters, vs. Frank Freitas of San Francisco.

Ivey Johnson, well known and known well, vs. Willie Cook, who is a hot one.

JOIN THE EXCURSION TO MARTINEZ SUNDAY

Tomorrow Richmond will end this year's series with the team from the County Seat—that is, providing Richmond wins. Much of whether Richmond wins depends on whether Jack Killilay is on his roadster or not. When Jack is good he is good, but when he is not good, oh, goodness. But that it will not be such a game as was played on Sunday last. Speed Martin, the Pleasanton phenom, will be on the bench, and if Kill's slants are killed early he will be sent in to stop the stampede of the Elks.

The local fans are also awaiting with much interest the working of the fielders of the "Martinez team." Joe says he will get them together today for a workout, which on account of never having seen each other is certainly much needed.

The Martinez fans state that they have several score of yellow eagles that are screaming that Martinez is going to win, and that many a roll of verde olored paper was longing for exercise. Yes Joe tells them that the Colts are going to win, and as he has never fooled them they really think so.

From the way things look now over three hundred fans will take the trip from Richmond. Plenty of music, baseball and good times should certainly mark the ending of this year's series with the Colts, as a gala victory.

MEJIA IS IN EARNEST THIS TIME O. K.

Al Mejia, clever bantamweight, who will step with Kid Gomes before the local boxing bugs on Thursday next, is training for the match daily at Kerby's arena on Eighth street. Mejia says that he is getting in good condition, and that he will have no excuse if he loses the match.

WELCOME, WELCOME, BERRY. WELCOME TO MY CITY FROM "MY CITY."

Kid Smiley—non de plume for Welcome Berry—is to join the local ham and eggers this week, moving his family and place of residence here all the way from "MyCity" Oakland.

Smiley has a tough nut to crack on Thursday evening next when he will lock Dick Dixon with his awful left. Dick is trainnig like the dickens for the match.

ANOTHER NEW ONE.

Back from San Francisco hiked Joe McNamara last evening, bringing the final tidings as to next Sunday's line up. Joe's latest addition is McAvoy, late of the Oakland club of the Coast League and an A1 fielder with a terrific kick to his bat.

"That ends my arrangements for the entertainment of the Elks next Sunday," harped Joe today, "and you can put it down that I am going to win next Sunday, no matter what happens.

GRAPE JUICE AND HATTERS WILL TANGLE

Cheer'p, ye hum town fans, for tomorrow on Luce Park you will witness what happens when a plug hat and grape juice gets together. Ye have all seen what happens when Cider and Oil mix, and when Oil gets on Feathers, and Dishwashers and Electricity, and Alameda Sand Crabs, etc., but something new and novel is on for tomorrow, when the fast Bertillions of Oakland meet the Winehaven team at 2:30.

The locals will be there with two batteries, Pinkerton and Thurber on the sending and Offer and Moss on the receiving ends.

School Suits, Pants, Shoes, Hats, etc. New line at low prices. Bargain Emporium, Fourth and Macdonald.

SANTA ROSA TEAM IS GOING TO BE FACTOR IN BUSH RACE

More and more like a real contender for the semi-pro championship of the state, looms up the Santa Rosa team, being organized without limit as to money by several Americans of that city, who can no longer stand the taunts of the Sebastopolians for being so un-American as not to have a baseball team.

Rivalry on all imaginable topics has long been keen between the two towns. Sebastopol papers brand Reems, the only Santa Rosa boy on the Apple Growers' squad, as "one of the few fair minded Santa Rosans," and the Rose City papers are just as bitter calling the squad of Delmas, "the sour apple boys," "who play under the inspiration of hard cider" and "who Santa Rosa snowed how to play ball last year."

Joe Sokol of the San Francisco State League team, who is a good manager when he has the wherewithto round up a good team, will manage the bunch, it is said.

Santa Rosa could not stand the idea of losing to Sebastopol and if she organizes a team, it will be one which will make all of the teams in the brush hump.

That a Seal cannot stand a hard crack by an Oaken club in the hands of a Rowdie was proved yesterday, and it looks as if both the Angels and the Portland tried to win a half dozen games in one, by the number of runs stacked up.

The Winehaven Jrs. will play the Bushrod Park Jrs. at Bushrod Park grounds, 61st and Telegraph, at 1:30 tomorrow. The Oakland team is fast and will make the locals hump.
